Terms of Agreement:

The undersigned ("Client") and Yitamusic agree that Yitamusic will rent to the Client the items described above at the stated rental fee. This agreement commences on the initial date of the contract and continues until the instrument is returned. The Client agrees to pay for the entire replacement value of the instrument, bow, and case for failing to return the instrument. Client understands that she/he may terminate this agreement at any time upon return of the instrument to Yitamusic, however, no reimbursements for payments already made will be given.

Ownership/Insurance/Repairs

Client understands that Yitamusic retains ownership of the above items, and the Client agrees to maintain the instrument in a reasonable manner for the duration of the contract. In the event of incidental damage, Yitamusic will conduct all necessary repairs, or an exchange will be made. Yitamusic will replace broken or false strings within the first week of rental only. Costs associated with the repair of other incidental damage are covered as part of this agreement. In the event of malicious or negligent damage, or theft as a result of careless action, Client is responsible for all costs associated with repairs or replacement. All repairs must be completed by qualified Yitamusic technicians.

Exchange Instruments

Yitamusic agrees to exchange rental items for another instrument of equal replacement value at any time, subject to availability, during the duration of this contract.
